GILLES ROBIN

2009 Vintage

93 points | Hermitage

Quite rich, with a velvety-textured core of plum, fig and boysenberry fruit wrapped in sweet spice, melted licorice and fruitcake. Long and polished through the finish, with a smoldering cocoa note adding definition.

93 points | St.-Joseph André Péalat

Very aromatic, with black tea and toasty spice notes leading the way for gorgeous black cherry, plum sauce and licorice snap flavors. Lingering white pepper and sanguine notes add length and detail to the finish. Extremely suave.

92 points | Crozes-Hermitage Albéric Bouvet

Ripe and fleshy, but invigorating from start to finish, with racy, iron-tinged acidity carrying the delicious mix of blackberry, plum and fig fruit. The long, tar- and white pepper-tinged finish has nice grip.
